

18 Clarendon Road. Kensington

May 20. 1869

Death of P. Cunningham

My dear Mr Collier,

Poor Peter died on the 18th at five minutes past seven p.m.
In February he was attacked by a series of epileptic fits in close succession, which left him speechless, and so he continued till death released him.
He died without any pain -

I hope you are well - I'll write more at length hereafter.

Yours very sincerely
J. Cunningham

